• Post-Match Quotes

DURHAM, N.C. -- Sixth-seeded and fifth-ranked Duke won their 15th consecutive match by defeating Auburn, 4-0, in NCAA Men's Tennis Regional action on Sunday afternoon in Durham, N.C.

The Blue Devils improve to 23-3 and advance to the Sweet 16 in Athens, Ga., on May 19-22. Auburn falls to 14-10 with the loss.

Duke had wins at the No. 1 and No. 2 positions in doubles as the Blue Devils took the early 1-0 lead. At No. 1 doubles, 22nd-ranked Phillip King and Ramsey Smith upset ninth-ranked Tiago Ruffoni and Georges Matijasevic, 8-5, to improve to 14-0 on the year. King and Smith took the lead for good as they broke serve in the 10th game to secure the victory.

Marko Cerenko returned to action in prime form after missing Saturday's match as he teamed with Mike Yani for a 8-2 victory over Mark Kovacs and Andrez Boz at No. 2 doubles. Auburn managed to win the No. 3 doubles spot as Rameez Junaid and Estevam Strecker posted a 8-6 victory over Andres Pedroso and Alex Bose.

Bose recovered smoothly as he posted an impressive 6-1, 6-2 victory over Boz at No. 6 singles to give the Duke the 2-0 lead. Joel Spicher then posted a 6-3, 6-4 victory over Strecker at No. 5 singles to extend the Blue Devil lead to 3-0. Spicher was down 4-1 in the second set but rambled off five straight games to secure the win. Smith closed out the match as the senior from Hilton Head, S.C. recorded a 6-3, 7-5 victory over 29th-ranked Ruffoni.

All other singles matches were abandoned once Duke clinched the victory.

Duke moves on to face 11th-ranked University of Miami in the Sweet 16 on May 19. Miami (21-3) has posted NCAA Tournament wins over Charleston Southern (4-0) and Minnesota (4-1).
